EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Nick Baumann on 11/4/2010.

The application has been amended as follows:

Please change the dependency of claim 16 such that it depends from claim 13.
The corrected claim 16 follows below.

16. (Currently Amended) The irrigation system as claimed in claim [11] 13, wherein the cylindrical element includes in said third angular position a first channel extending from substantially the axis of rotation to a periphery of the cylindrical element, and a second channel extending from substantially the axis of rotation to the periphery of the cylindrical element in a fifth angular position that forms an angle with the third angular position corresponding to the angle between said first and second angular positions of the accommodating element, said first and second channels being connected with each other at the axis of rotation.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The subject matter of the independent claims could either not be found or was not suggested in the prior art of record.

The subject matter not found in independent claim 7 was the irrigation system including a rotatable element including three discs, the first disc having two cavities, the second disc having three cavities and the intermediate disc having one cavity and an oblong recess, and the arrangement of the cavities with relationship to each other as well as to each of the discs, in combination with the other elements of the claims.

The subject matter not found in independent claims 13 and 29 was an irrigation system including the cylindrical element with the arrangement of the five canals within the cylindrical element and the arrangement of the five canals in relation to each other, in combination with the other elements of the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
